

"You grow 'em, and we'll shave 'em!"
With whiskers growing "rampant on the campus" (due apologies to Ogden Nash) because of the coming Whiskerino contest, the "Club" at 68 East San Fernando has promised to shave 10 entrants.
Extra-curriculum activity will get under way tomorrow, when men students will start growing beards for Spardi Gras, May 2.

A.W.A. CONVENTION WILL BRING 150 DELEGATES TO SAN JOSE FRIDAY

All California Colleges Attend

For the first time since its organization 13 years ago, the annual AWA, AWS and WAA convention will bring to San Jose State Friday representatives from all junior colleges and colleges throughout Alta California.

Over 150 delegates are expected for the three-day meet during which time several of the campus' outstanding affairs will be given especially to include the visitors.

Each event is also open to all San Jose State women upon payment of $2.50 for the entire program or 75 cents for Friday night "Bon Voyage" dinner at the De Anza hotel, 50 cents for the Hawaiian luncheon at the Hawaiian Gardens Saturday noon, $1.00 for the Laus dinner at the Sainte Claire hotel Saturday night, and $1.25 for the "Aloha" dance to follow it. Women may attend the functions separately.

Payment of the fees may be made in Jerrie Jurra's office in the Student Union today from 1 to 4. There will be no other time to purchase the bids.

All women are invited to the registration tea Friday afternoon in the Student Union to help in welcoming the representatives.

The discussion groups on Saturday morning and afternoon are also to be opened free to San Jose women, according to Mary Ellen Ward, chairman of the convention.

The tea Friday is from 2 until 4 and hostesses will preside under the chairmanship of Celeste Joseph.

Saturday discussion groups will begin at 8:30 in the Little Theater under AWA president Jerrie Jurra with welcome to be extended by vice-president Minssen and Dr. Dorothy Kaucher.

Following the general meeting, discussion groups will begin at 10 o'clock. Divided into two sections, one will deal with the problems encountered in AWS administration, social affairs and financial difficulties.

At this time there will also be a meeting of the Deans of Women headed by Dean Helen Dimmick.

Pro-Arte Concert Tonight At 8:30

A string quartet, sponsored by the Pro-Arte Coolidge music foundation, will present its second in a series of five programs, scheduled in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:30 tonight.

Featured in the concert will be modern American music written by American composers since 1924. Next week's presentation will bring forth modern music written by European composers living in the United States.

Tonight's program will include: "Quartet on Indian Themes," by Frederick Jacobi, "Quartet No. 8 in A major," by David Standy Smith, and "The Wind in the Willows," by Randall Thompson. The last piece was suggested by a book for children, written by Kenneth Grahame.

Those performing are: Antonia Brosa, first violin; Laurant Halleux, second violin; Germain Prevost, viola; and Warwick Evans, cello.

Admission charges for the remaining Pro Arte concerts are as follows: Student season tickets, $1.60; General season tickets, $2.50; Sponsors season tickets (two for each concert), $4.00.

Personnel Tests Given Again April 19-26

Students who have failed to take the personnel test will be given another chance April 19 and 26 according to the Personnel office.

The tests formerly given on one day will be divided in half, the first part to be given on Saturday, with the concluding part a week later.

Those planning to take the test should pay the fee of two dollars in the Business office, room 2 before 9 o'clock on April 19. Two pencils, a pen, and blotter will also be needed.

It is compulsory that students take these tests before they will be allowed to enter school for the succeeding quarter.

Last Rehearsal Of Extravaganza Open To Public

Finishing touches will be added to "Isle of the Pacific," water pageant which is being produced by the Women's Swim club, when dress rehearsal is held at the pool tonight.

For the first time in the eight year history of extravaganzas, the dress rehearsal will be open to the public. The rehearsal will start at 7:30, and doors to the pool will open at 7:25. Regular performances of the show are scheduled for tomorrow, Thursday and Friday nights.

Open To Children

Tonight presents the only opportunity for children to see the production. As "Isle of the Pacific" is not a show for children, it was decided to let children in only to the preliminary performance.

Among the swimming numbers which comprise the water part of the show are a surf-board routine, nucleus of which are three surf boards. Swimmers who take part in this number are Maxine Knight, Kathleen Bull, Norma Ojstedt, Eileen Phifer, Marian Johnston, Evelyn Woodard, Beverly Buckingham, Carol Meyers, Jean Lessard, Dorothy Stewart, and Louise Prather.

Finale

The finale of the show comes at the conclusion of the surf-board routine with 30 to 40 women swimming in formation around the center. At the close of this number, lights will be dimmed signifying the end of the pageant.

Women who will participate in the diving portion of the presentation are Emily Currier, Norma Ojstedt, Jessie Burns, Lorraine Coates, Doris Stratton, Florence Booth, Evelyn Woodard, and Marian Johnston. The divers will be costumed in swim suits of yellow, shell pink, and aqua.

Waltz Duet

Roberta Hardwicke and Carmen Opferman will perform a waltz duet in the pool, in white and shell sharkskin suits.

A tandem and crew style duet will be presented by Sarah Jane Corwin and Marian Johnston. They will wear bright red suits.

Largest Routine

The largest all-swim number will be a crawl and back-crawl routine performed by 35 women to a Hawaiian waltz accompaniment. They will wear red suits stenciled with large native floral designs.

Positively no tickets for the performances will be sold at the door as all tickets for the three performances have been sold.

Former Students Wed In Oroville

Frances Toland and Norman Thorp, former students, were married last week in Oroville.

The bride was a pre-nursing student here and before her marriage was a student nurse at the University of California hospital. Thorp, affiliated with SGO, graduated from here last year, majoring in commerce. He is now working as accountant in a San Francisco firm.

THERE'S MONEY IN IT! LETTER CONTEST CLOSSES TODAY; $25 IN PRIZES

Ten dollars for a letter!

Ten dollars for a letter addressed to your parents, a friend, a member of the state senate or legislature, urging active backing or favorable consideration for the bill now pending which provides $1,200,000 for a building program at San Jose State college.

Just a letter . . . short, informal, in fact written just the way you'd write to Dad at the end of the month when the finances are low, or to the girl-friend back home.

Ten dollars! And that's just for the best letter. There's an additional $15 in prizes for other "best letters" selected by the judges when the contest closes at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

YOUR $10?

Maybe that's your ten dollars. It belongs to someone with 15 minutes to spare and an extra sheet of notebook paper. Here's how to win it, or part of the other $15 in cash prizes. Read this, then go to work:

1. Tomorrow will be "Letter Writing Day" at San Jose State college. On that day 3000 students and faculty members will write to relatives and friends in behalf of the proposed legislation which will insure adequate buildings for the college.

2. In preparation for the most effective use of this day, a letter writing contest is being conducted (Continued on Page 4)

Afternoon Dance Thursday At 4

An afternoon dance sponsored by the Social Affairs committee will be held in the women's gymnasium from 4 until 6 p.m. Thursday afternoon.

Music for the affair will be furnished by Jack Harcourt and his four-piece orchestra. Admission will be 10 cents. This is to be the biggest afternoon dance of the year, announces Peggy McDonald, chairman of the Social Affairs committee.

DR. RHODES GIVES TWO LECTURES IN SAN FRANCISCO

Dr. Robert Rhodes spoke on "Forests and Recreation to the Commonwealth club of San Francisco last week at a luncheon and round table discussion. Harold C. Bryant of the National Park Service program also spoke at the meeting.

On the same day, Rhodes spoke to the Conference of Elementary school principals and superintendents on "The Utilization of Field Excursions in Sponsoring a Conservation Program."

Friday Is Deadline For Dropping Spring Quarter Courses

Friday is the deadline set for the dropping of courses for the Spring quarter, announces Joe West, Registrar.

Although students may drop courses until Friday, courses cannot be added.

State Aid

College Unites Behind Bill For State Aid

Tomorrow is "Letter Writing Day" at San Jose State college—and a program unique in the history of the institution has been planned for the occasion.

There'll be an all-college assembly at 9:40 o'clock, with instructors requested to take their classes to the Morris Dailey auditorium or to the overflow assembly in the main quad.

At 10 o'clock all classes will spend the first fifteen minutes of the hour in a letter-writing program in which both students and faculty of the college will be asked to write to their parents, friends and representatives in Sacramento a plea for active backing and support of bills now pending in both Senate and Legislature providing a building appropriation of $1,200,000 for San Jose State college.

Paper, envelopes, stamps will be provided for the letters, as will a printed letter stating the facts and signed by President MacQuarrie of the college and President Bob Payne of the associated students, the latter to be enclosed with letters written by the students.

The united co-operation of faculty and students behind a legislative bill of vital interest to the college and student body is unique in this institution's history. More than 5000 letters urging passage of the bill are expected.

Letter-posting depots will be placed at strategic points about the campus under the direction of college service society members.

Groups Report Budgets At Council Meet

With long discussions of budgets for the different organizations heading the main business the student council met in the Student Union last night.

Reed Surber, chairman of Spardi Gras, reported the expense of Spardi Gras to reach approximately $330. He suggested that next year's budget of $75 be doubled.

The Revelries expense as estimated by the student show committee was set at $570, with an income estimation of $800. Major West, director of the show, suggested that a separate fund be set aside for Revelries next year so as to eliminate guessing of costs on the part of the committee.

Peggy McDonald, Social Affairs chairman, and Don Griffin, rally committee head, also gave reports from their respective groups. Plans are in progress to hold joint Rally committee-Social Affairs student body dance the latter part of this month.

Budgets for next year are expected to come before the council in the near future.

May 28 was set as the date for the organization dinner.

Whiskerino, Queen Sign-Ups Held Tomorrow From 9 To 4 O'clock

Sign-ups for the queen and whiskerino contests will be held tomorrow from 9 to 4 o'clock in the student body president's office, and in the Publications office.

Any club, organization, group of persons or individual is eligible to sponsor a candidate for the queen contest, announce Spardi Gras contest committee men. The name of the candidate must be registered in the student body president's office by 4 o'clock tomorrow.

Queen sponsors are asked not to erect posters publicizing their candidates until Monday, April 21. The committee is co-operating with the AWA convention which will be held this week-end by not "cluttering" the campus with campaings. Potential beard growers must appear clean shaven tomorrow when signing for the Whiskerino contest. Lorraine Titcomb is in charge of the signing-up and will inspect faces from 9 to 4 o'clock.

Men's organizations are encouraged to enter teams.

Prizes will be announced tomorrow and will be awarded for the fullest beard, the most unusual growth, and the feeblest fuzz. Local merchants are donating the awards.

There will be nine contests for Spardi Gras: queen, whiskerino, cinderella, big foot, chariot, best dressed male, best dressed female, best dressed group, and best dressed faculty member.

Students Lack Co-operation In Library

Co-operation is one of the things which is most widely stressed in college life—co-operation with fellow students, with instructors, with college affairs—and in the majority of cases students do co-operate. But one case where they do not co-operate remains, and that is in the use of the library.

The rule of the library is that students must not carry on a conversation except when it is absolutely necessary. This restricts the amount of talking that can be carried on in the library. Yet time and time again students may be seen spending a social hour there while others are endeavoring to study.

The librarians do their best to keep these people from talking, but it is almost impossible to keep a close watch on 150 or 200 people.

No doubt these students do not mean to make public nuisances of themselves, and certainly they are not attempting to distract others on purpose, yet this is just what they are doing when they insist upon talking. Perhaps they even consider that they are being very quiet because they talk in whispers, but they should realize that whispering can be as distracting as shouting.

So let's practice a little co-operation in the library as well as in other places. Keep it a place where students can go to study in peace instead of to listen to other people's conversation. —Irwin.

Swing Out - For More Friendliness . . .

Problems of the Social Affairs committee, like the poor, are always with us.

Planning noon dances this quarter has become a major problem for the Social Affairs committee. On bright, sunny days, the date is set for a future quad affair, but no sooner are arrangements made than the sun disappears behind a cloud and the resulting mist dispels all hopes of a noon dance.

But, trouble does not end here. From past experience, we have seen these noon events as the center of much adverse comment. This is through no fault of the Social Affairs chairman, but due to a laxity on the part of the student body as a whole.

To be specific, when good weather and other conditions permit the dance to take place, student turnout for actual dancing is appallingly small. Of course, lawn sidelines are jammed with gawking oglers. However, the fact that a committee has spent time and thought on providing an orchestra and a means of inexpensive entertainment, does not bear a whit of influence in bringing these oglers to participate.

The few who brave a twirl or two on the spangled quad sidewalk, soon give up in embarrassment or disgust, for they experience the sensation of the proverbial gold fish in a glass bowl. Thus the comment: "Noon quad dances are a flop".

If the yokels could be persuaded to find a partner and add to the action rather than presenting a picture of gaping "still life", the Social Affairs committee wouldn't have so many headaches. Moreover, the inactive element might discover a social asset and real enjoyment in the activity.

Other student body dances have more than satisfactory attendance records, so why should the most informal of them all, a noon dance, be difficult to put over.

Naturally big name bands are not employed, and there isn't any floor show for those attending, but rhythms provided are adequate everyone will agree.

A constant wish of the administration and students themselves is that a spirit of friendliness be the epitome of our college life. Natural friendliness and new acquaintances are more readily nurtured and expanded with participation and cooperation of a majority, rather than a minority of students.

The next time a noon quad dance is scheduled, grab a partner and swing out to rid the Social Affairs committee of sleepless nights . . . and incidentally to have some fun you've missed in the past. —March.

Hamlet

Four-Day Production To Have Largest Set Ever Built For Little Theater

Director Hugh Gillis' production of "Hamlet" which is to be presented April 23, 24, 25, and 26, will have the largest set of any play ever produced in the Little Theater, according to Peter Mingrone, technical director.

To accommodate the large cast and to give an impression of massiveness, a fore-stage has been added to the regular stage. Half way back will be placed a second curtain, giving three levels to the stage.

There will be eight or ten sets used during the production and no two sets will appear consecutively, Mingrone stated. As no scenery was used at the time of the composition of the play, set changes did not slow down the presentation. In an effort to duplicate this, only 60 seconds will be allowed for the stage crew to change scenes. As it will be necessary to change some of the sets without lighting, the stage crew must rehearse their parts, also, for precision and co-ordination.

Highlight of the main set will be a winding staircase which will be utilized for more dramatic entrances and exits.

A temporary curtain which was made especially for "Hamlet" productions will be used instead of the usual main curtain, Mingrone stated.

Sixth Columnist

• CON LACY

IN one of the sensational metropolitan dailies of San Francisco over the week-end appeared two full pages with banner headlines devoted to an attack by the American Legion upon Orson Welles and his co-called subversive play broadcasts over the Columbia network.

The resolution adopted by the Legion demanded that Welles Free Company "in the future choose its plays for air presentation with the utmost care so that such renditions will give no encouragement to Communists, radicals or any subversive group in America."

The outburst arose from a play in which Welles portrayed a mayor who allowed a totalitarian group to meet in his city.

"By these here reds you mean Communists; there is nothing illegal about being a Communist—"

"I say anyone can have a meeting if he wants to . . ."

"I leave you to draw your own conclusions from this play; if you believe it teaches a moral, then we have served our purpose. . . ." These are some of the more shocking quotations.

Chester Gannon, member of the Legion's legislative committee is quoted as saying Welles "productions are the usual harangue about the right of free speech and free press, and particularly the right to assembly no matter how un-American the groups to which this privilege is given."

Gannon also charges Welles with the heinous crime of petitioning Attorney General Jackson asking that deportation proceedings against Harry Bridges be dropped. This is given as a sign of his Communist sympathies.

The Columbia network is branded "as the same chain that once made its facilities available to Earl Browder, head of the Communist party. An organization that allows its network to be used for such a purpose is open to the severest criticism," according to W. J. Fourt, State Americanism chairman.

In my opinion the Legion is barking up the wrong tree. Next Sunday half the country will be listening to Welles' broadcast. They should receive a percentage as his publicity agent.

Among the writers on the Free Company's staff is "leftist John Steinbeck." Steinbeck, you may remember, had his books publicly burnt by the Associated Farmers, and then won the Pulitzer prize. It looks like Steinbeck and Welles are in for another period of prosperity.

Speaking Of Jobs!

• By ED HAWORTH

Each year many seniors ask the advice of the Appointment Office regarding the amount of individual initiative they should take in seeking positions—should they look for jobs "on their own," or should they wait until the office notifies them of openings before applying? With certain reservations, the answer is: Do what you can, both individually and with the co-operation of the office, to find a position. One notable reservation is based upon the simple truth that not many employers, whether they be school administrators, business men, or others, enjoy being deluged by applications when they have no vacancies to fill. It follows that you should have some knowledge of an opening, or at least the possibility of one, before applying. Your approach may be made by letter, wire, telephone, or a personal visit. A personal application is usually by far the most effective.

Besides direct notification by the Appointment Office, many sources of information are open to the job seeker—friends who are already teaching or employed in the field in which you are interested, your former school teachers and principals, our own college faculty members, the State Employment Service—just to mention a few. Applicants for teaching positions will do well to watch the daily newspapers for items referring to marriages, deaths, resignations, and dismissals of teachers, enlargement of public school services, construction of new school buildings, and notices of teachers' examinations. County superintendents, especially in rural counties, can often be helpful to you. The Sierra Educational News, the monthly publication of the California Teachers Association, frequently contains valuable information. Rumors reaching you via the "grapevine route" may frequently lead you up a blind alley, but they may also prove to be valuable in some instances.

The above list by no means exhausts the possibilities of gathering information, but it does contain some sources which are often overlooked. If you apply for a position and find that it is one which you are not qualified to fill, please report it to the Appointment Office so that qualified applicants may hear about it.

CINDERMEN FACE FRESNO TODAY

WOFFINGTON SHIFTED TO FULLBACK SLOT IN GRIDIRON PRACTICE

Beneath clear and sunny skies, 50 aspiring gridiron greats worked yesterday afternoon under the watchful eyes of Head Coach Winkelman and advisory mentor Glenn Scobey Warner. Still conditioning his outfit, Winkelman would permit no active scrimmage. Despite the fact that there was no scrimmage the Spartan players went about their work with a high spirit and gleeful willingness.

Only real body contact of the day was in the various running plays which varsity candidates blocked tackling dummies.

In fact the dummies took such beating that one particular one began to split open a little and its sides began to drop out onto the field before mentor Winkelman removed it from action for the afternoon.

Still tinkering with the backfield, Winkelman sent John Woffington to the fullback spot and transferred Sempot Saghatelian to the center position. These were the only notable changes of the day.

Bulldog Freddy Lindsey, counted on by Winkelman to fill the fullback slot, worked out with the team running through various plays and then moved over and attempted a few field goal tries. Lindsey is being groomed to fill the place-kicking shoes of Ken Cook.

In the Warner system of play, the fullback is the main cog in the attack. Preserving against any serious injury to his first team fullback, Winkelman has John Woffington and Chet Carston under training the playing of Lindsey. Off of yesterday's practice, particularly in the ball handling on the intricate Warner spinners, Lindsey appeared to please the coach and several times was complimented upon his handling. Evidently Warner intends to give the Spartan offense a few new twists for in yesterday's session he had the State men running through a couple of new plays. Stu Carter reported for practice but didn't see much action because his right foot bothered him.

Ronald Edwards Wins Mixed Doubles Crown

Ronald Edwards, Spartan number one tennis player, teamed up with Margaret Osborne, of San Francisco, Sunday and won the mixed doubles championship at the Del Monte Invitational tournament.

This makes them the number one mixed doubles team of Northern California.

In the singles Edwards was defeated by Ronnie English of Oakland in a close three-set match. Ted Schroeder, of Los Angeles, defeated both English and Harold Wagner, who will face Edwards Thursday for the singles championship.

NOTICES

There will be a meeting of Spartan Senate in room 157 today at 5 p.m. Everybody please come.

Spartan Netmen Defeat Dons For Fifth Straight

SAN FRANCISCO J.C. FACES STATE TODAY ON LOCAL COURTS

San Jose State's varsity tennis team made another step toward the Northern California Intercollegiate tennis championship yesterday afternoon when they defeated the University of San Francisco netmen 7-2 on the Bay City courts.

JAYCEE HERE

This afternoon the Spartans will face the San Francisco junior college Rams on the local courts at 2 o'clock. This is a practice game for the Spartans and will give Coach T. Erwin Blesh a chance to use his reserve power.

Yesterday afternoon the Bleshmen made it two in a row over the Dons. In their opening league game of the season on the local courts they handed the Bay City racquet swingers a 6-3 defeat.

S. F. STATE THURSDAY

Thursday afternoon the Spartans will face the strong San Francisco State aggregation. In order to cop the title for the fourth straight time they must hurdle Coach Dan Farmer's strong team.

Yesterday's results:
Edwards (S) d. Mayer (S), 6-0, 9-7.

Bridwell (SF) d. N. Morton (S), 4-6, 6-4, 8-6.

V. Morton (S) d. Block (S), 6-0, 6-2.

LaFrank (S) d. Veuve (SF), 5-7, 7-5, 3-6.

Wills (SF) d. Quiten (S), 5-7, 6-2, 6-0.

Thorne (S) d. Povey (SF), 6-4, 8-6.

Edwards, V. Morton (S) d. Bridwell, Veuve (SF), 3-6, 6-2, 6-2.

BULLDOGS EXPECT TO OUTCLASS SPARTANS ON RAISIN CITY TRACK

Having about as much chance of winning as the femmes of Dogpatch county have of capturing L'il Abner, San Jose State college varsity trackmen meet Fresno State at Fresno this afternoon.

Fresno has not had a chance to show what it can do, but followers of the Raisin City school claim it has the best team in its history. Coach Glenn (Tiny) Hartranft ranks Coach Flint Hanner's squad in the same class as Stanford, so unless somebody pulls an upset the Spartans' side of the ledger will read, "they also ran."

REPRIEVE

Stanford drubbed the helpless Spartans by the score of 115½ to 14½ last week. The meet had been postponed once because of rain and members of the San Jose team would have appreciated another downpour the day of the Indian meet. Hartranft's men were given a reprieve last Saturday when the Fresno meet had to be postponed until today because of a wet track.

Hartranft has shaken up the squad for today's meet and did not take as many fellows to Fresno as he did to Stanford.

Spartans' hopes in the javelin event are bright, as Johnny Dierker, Burton Stokes and George Terry have good records. Dierker has thrown the spear 190 feet, and both Stokes and Terry placed ahead of him in the Stanford meet.

YAMAMOTO LEAPS

If Sat Yamamoto can leap as far as he has in practice—over 24 feet—he should be a cinch to take points today in the broad jump. Sammy Miller will also compete in that event.

Participating for the Spartans in the 100-yard dash will be Ruiz, Miller, Chase; 220-yard: Ruiz, Kerr, Chase; 440: Kerr, Kmetovic; 880: Eikenberry, Coleman; mile and two-mile: Siegler, Ornelas; hurdles: Rose, Campion; shot put: O'Conner, Wheat; discus: O'Conner, Wheat, Talcot; javelin: Dierker, Stokes, Terry; high jump: Romine, Webb; broad jump, Yamamoto, Miller; pole vault: Schneider, Terry; relay: Kmetovic, Coleman, Shank.

Spartan Golfers Defeat USF Don Team, 9 To 0

San Jose State college's varsity golfers scored their second win in three starts yesterday afternoon taking University of San Francisco's Dons by a 9 to 0 score at the San Jose Country club course.

Jack Bariteau and Captain Warner Keeley, Sparta's consistent low-shooting pair, again paced the way to victory.

Bariteau shot a 71 for top honors, followed by Keeley who registered a 72.

Results of the match and scores follow: Bariteau, 71, and Herb Showers, 78, defeated Bill Gowans, 75, and Ralph Schwartz, 83; Dale Wren, 77, and Elmer Anderson, 79, defeated Bob Foley, 88, and Marty Taylor, 89, of USF; Captain Warner Keeley, 72, and Bob Burchfield, 76, defeated Bill Parnow, 78, and Lloyd Sagon, 76, of the Dons.

Next outing for the golfers will take place on Friday when they travel to Reno for a match with the University of Nevada.

FROSH TRACK MEET SLATED FOR TODAY

Coach Tiny Hartranft seems to have trouble getting his freshman track team into a meet.

Just when it appeared that the frosh were about to meet San Jose high yesterday, a last minute change switched the meet today. It will be held at 3:30 at Spartan field.

The Bulldogs will be stiff opening competition for the Spartababes. Coach Lee Cox's boys have won five meets thus far, their latest one being a 68-45 win over San Mateo high.

The Spartan material is of doubtful quantity. Rain and a bad track have forced the thinly-clad indoors most of the early season. Times for most of the competitors have not been taken, and today's meet will be the first test for the freshman team.

STATE-ST. MARY'S BATTLE TOMORROW AT LOCAL BALL ORCHARD

San Jose State's varsity baseball nine will make its last home appearance of the current season when it seeks to make it two straight wins over Earl Sheely's St. Mary's ball club tomorrow afternoon on the local diamond. The Spartan nine won the first contest by a 6-2 verdict over the Galloping Gaels the previous time out.

Following tomorrow's tilt the State nine will take a short jaunt up to San Francisco next Friday to cross bats with the USF Don horsehiders.

Rain that played havoc with the 1941 schedule cancelled several games that the Spartans were slated to play. The San Francisco State game seems to be definitely off and the Fresno games that were rained out will not be played unless it affects the standings in the CCAA conference frolic.

Husky Jack Raine, a lefthander, will be Walt McPherson's choice to face the Gaels tomorrow. Raine in his last appearance hurled a 4-0 shutout over the USF ball club.

In the last meeting of the two schools, the Spartan nine pounded the offerings of Frankie Boyle and McLaughlin to club out a surprise victory. The Gaels, last season's winner in the college conference race, will seek revenge from the Spartan nine. Last Saturday St. Mary's defeated USC behind the effective hurling of Wes Bailey.

Against USF, the starting pitcher will be either Ray Cressio, shutout victor over Santa Barbara State, or Lefty Stubenrauch.

Russia-Japan Pact Discussed

NIPPONES MAY TAKE ARGUMENT AS NOD TO POSSESS INDIES

BY WENDELL HAMMON

"In the event that the Japanese government fully trusts the recently signed pact with Russia, Japan quite possibly will consider it in the form of a mandate for her to go ahead in the South Pacific, and especially towards Singapore and the Dutch East Indies," declared Dr. Frederick E. Graham of the Social Science department yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Graham felt that one of the largest factors that brought about the pact between Japan and Russia, were the recent turn of events in the Balkans, and the advances of the German army.

"Then there may be another side to this treaty in that Russia may be showing disfavor towards Germany and her Axis partner Italy by trying to keep Japan out of the present struggle," he said.

He emphasized this point by indicating that the treaty specifically pledges both parties to non-aggression and also pledges the Japanese not to fight with the Axis partners against Russia.

"There is still another point that must not be entirely overlooked, and that is if the German armies are successful in chasing the English out of the Balkans, and are able to capture Egypt and the Suez Canal area this might herald a three front offensive against the British Empire—Germany and Italy in the Near East, Russia in India, and the Japanese in the South Pacific," he declared.

"There is the school of thought that feels that Russia is playing a 100 per cent game of an opportunist with the sky as the limit."

"Stalin is blackmailing everyone for all that he can get, including Hitler, to keep him out of the Ukraine, and he would betray him (Hitler) completely if it were to his advantage. However Hitler is very much aware of Stalin's duplicity," Dr. Graham said.

under the combined auspices of the college administration, Associated Students, State College Instructors' Association, and the Spartan Daily. It is to be an all-college effort in the interests of greater San Jose State college. Prizes totaling $25 and ranging from one dollar to $10 are being offered by the Spartan Shop.

OPEN TO ALL

3. The contest is open to any student. Entries are limited to 200 words and must be left at Dean of Men Paul Pitman's office or in the yellow contribution box inside the door of the Publications office not later than 5 o'clock this afternoon.

4. A minimum of emphasis will be placed by the judges on technical qualities. Chief stress will be laid on readability and on the letter's probable effectiveness in persuading friends of the college to urge their legislators to vote for Assembly Bill 2249 (Senate Bill 1108) which provides for a $1,200,000 building program at San Jose State college.

5. The Spartan Shop is also offering a special prize of $5 for line drawings or cartoons suitable for the editorial pages of newspapers. Art entries will be due Thursday afternoon in the Art department office.

A FEW TIPS

Now, here are a few tips. San

Dance Planned For Tomorrow

Weather permitting a dance will be held in the quad tomorrow noon with Clyde Appleby's six-piece orchestra supplying music, announces Harrett Maninna of the Social Affairs committee.

The dance which was planned for last Wednesday noon was postponed because of rain. Future dances to be held during the noon hour depend on the number of students who turn out to dance and not watch tomorrow, states Maninna. In the past not enough students have participated to make the dances worth while.

Verna Greenfield will be vocalist for the dance. Musicians in Appleby's orchestra are Allen Furgerson, piano; Jack Alcorn, trumpet; Nick Maggi, drums; George Morris, string bass; and Clyde Appleby, clarinet.

SOCIAL SERVICE CLUB MEETS TONIGHT, 7:15

Members of the YWCA-sponsored Social Service club will meet tonight at 7:15 at 64 North 15th street, the home of Clare Harris, Miss Harris announces.

Miss Harris will be speaker, and her topic is "The Constructive Approach to Social Problems."

The rest of the evening will be spent in discussion of projects in Mexican areas and the San Jose Day Nursery School. All women students are invited to attend.

Commerce Banquet Set For Next Week

The Commerce department's second-annual Spring quarter banquet will be held this year at the Sainte Claire hotel on April 24.

All junior and senior commerce majors are invited to attend the banquet and get acquainted with the town's business men.

The four divisions of the department; accounting; secretarial; merchandising; and special secondary students will sit at tables with the business men of their own line.

The main speaker has not been chosen as yet, but will be announced sometime this week.

Jose State college is so crowded it's splitting at the seams. In ten years, since 1930, the enrollment has jumped from 2166 to 4076 students—just doubled, in fact. We're short of classrooms. The whole educational program at the college is seriously impaired. We need that money and we need it badly. It will build a new music building, purchase the Technical high school property for the expansion of the college industrial arts program, purchase the present student union building from the State College Corporation, extend the new college library building, purchase a practice house for the Home Economics department, provide administrative offices, more classrooms, a swimming pool for the women.

Can you write a 200-word letter about that? Just like rolling off a log! And remember, the deadline is 5 o'clock this afternoon.

BRODIE, SPORT ARTIST, SHOWS WORK HERE

Goudron's band, popular with Spartan dancers who have heard it at the Coconut Grove in Santa Cruz and at some of San Francisco's leading dance hotels, will present appropriate novelty numbers and a girl vocalist.
